Year 6 class visit to Rochester Cathedral on Wednesday 30th June 2021

Church Schools' Celebration

Every year in June, the Diocesan Education team and the Cathedral Education team join forces to extend a warm invitation to the Year 6 pupils in their Church of England Primary Schools to join them in a celebration of belonging to their family of Church Schools across the Diocese of Rochester.

Their aims are:

- To bring together their family of church schools from around the Diocese in their Cathedral for a time of celebration and worship.
- To explore an engaging theme through activities and experiences which help the pupils to appreciate their amazing Cathedral and Eucharist service.
- To worship together led by our Diocesan Bishop with joy and thanksgiving.

The children will be transported to the Cathedral by minibus, which will be leaving School at 10:15am. We are asking for parents to pick up their child from the Cathedral at 2pm.

All children will need a packed lunch from home on that day; please use disposable bags rather than lunch boxes or school bags. Please do not pack any fizzy drinks or any foods which contains nuts.

All children should wear school uniform and will need a coat if it is cold as there will be some walking outside.

The cost of the trip is £9 to be paid directly into our bank account:

Account name: KCC re Hunton Church of England Primary School
Sort code: 60-60-08
Account number: 83293124
